Coordinator's Message

October 4, 2009

Are we ready for the Quilt Show? I think I am. I have sleeves and labels on my quilts. And I even had time to whip up some shoes for the display!

I don't know about you, but I am excited about our upcoming November workshop. I don't remember the last time I had a Saturday off so I could spend a fun day sewing with friends. We need to have you sign up and let us know how many are coming.

All the stitching under pressure leaves me with my jaw clenched and my shoulders aching. It is time to relax and let go of the stress. I read somewhere that if you are experiencing a tight jaw due to stress, just wiggle your toes to relax the jaw. No kidding, it works! Now I wonder what I need to wiggle to relax my shoulders!

I will see you at the Quilt Show!

Coordinator, 2009*

Meeting Information

Guest Fee is $5.00 per meeting. Remember to bring:

- Books
- Nametag
- Show & Tell
- Block of the Month and
- Your Smile!

I am concerned about the lack of members willing to step up and serve on the board. It will be difficult to continue the group if we are going to get bogged down every year. I am hoping some of you will realize the future of Cape Cod Quilters rests on your shoulders. I am awaiting volunteers for the remaining positions for 2010.

Communications

There are usually two notices per month sent to our membership. If you are not receiving them, please call or email Pam Gordon at her phone number or email address in the membership directory.

From our Program Director

November's meeting greets Beth Helfter from Eva Paige Quilt Designs. Her lecture topic will be "Perfection is Overrated" and she will be teaching a workshop "Feelin' Hot, Hot Pink" on November 7th. This looks like a fun one for the beginners and the experienced quilters. The cost of the workshop is $35. Deadline for sign-ups is October 22. You will get a supply list when class fee is paid. You can send a check made out to the Cape Cod Quilters to me:

Board of Directors Vacancies

In November, we will vote for the new Board of Directors. We still need to fill three positions: Vice-coordinator, Newsletter/Web Editor and one additional person for hospitality. Please speak to Marion if you are able to volunteer for any of these positions.

December 3rd brings the end of the year and our holiday banquet being held at the Dan'l Webster Inn. The cost of the dinner is $40.00. You will have a choice of Sole Menemsha or Roasted Honey Lemon Chicken. I will have the slips with entree choices with me or you can mail a check to my home. Reservations must be made by November 19th.
